

EXTENDED BY POPULAR DEMAND

MONA GOLABEK IN THE PIANIST OF WILLESDEN LANE

NOW THROUGH MARCH 20 AT THE GEFfen PLAYHOUSE

LOS ANGELES (February 27, 2014) – Due to popular demand Mona Golabek in The Pianist of Willesden Lane, a Geffen Playhouse Spotlight Entertainment Series event has been extended through Thursday, March 20 (opening night is February 28). Tickets for the extension go on sale Thursday, February 27 at 6pm. Adapted and directed by L.A. audience favorite Hershey Felder, the show played a record-setting 21 weeks during its 2012 world premiere run at the Geffen. Since then the show has taken the country by storm, earning critical praise and enthusiastic audiences in the Bay Area, Chicago, Boston and Las Vegas. Originally produced in the Geffen's intimate Audrey Skirball Kenis, this engagement will be presented in the company's larger space, the 522-seat Gil Cates Theater.

The music-filled evening recounts award-winning pianist Mona Golabek's true life story of her mother in Nazi-occupied Europe. The Pianist of Willesden Lane tells the story of Lisa Jura, a young Jewish pianist who is dreaming about her concert debut at the storied Musikverein concert hall. But with the issuing of new ordinances under Nazi regime, everything for Lisa changes, except for her love of music and the pursuit of her dream. Featuring some of the world's most beloved piano music played live, The Pianist of Willesden Lane is the performer's true family story, chronicling hope, survival and how through our darkest times, music has the power to help us survive.

An "astonishing tour de force," said The San Francisco Chronicle of the show. The Chicago Tribune said "A stirring case of art preserving life...Golabek sitting down at the Steinway piano is enough to make your mouth fall open with a certain wonder at the way of the world." The Boston Globe added "Golabek delivers an exceptionally heartfelt daughter-to-mother tribute."

"Part of the power of Mona's artistry is that this is a story that only she can tell," said Geffen Playhouse Artistic Director Randall Arney. "With the pathos of her story coupled with her extraordinary expertise as a pianist, it is no surprise that she has taken the country by storm. Having had the pleasure of premiering this play, we welcome her home with open arms."

A Grammy nominee, Ms. Golabek has been the recipient of numerous awards, including the Avery Fisher Career Grant and the People's Award of the International Chopin Competition. She has been the subject of several PBS television documentaries, including More Than the Music, which won the grand prize in the 1985 Houston Film Festival, and Concerto for Mona, featuring Ms. Golabek and conductor Zubin Mehta. She has appeared in concert at the Hollywood Bowl, the Kennedy Center, Royal Festival Hall and with major orchestras and conductors worldwide.

ABOUT THE GEFFEN PLAYHOUSE

The Geffen Playhouse has been a hub of the Los Angeles theater scene since opening its doors in 1995. Noted for its intimacy and celebrated for its world-renowned mix of classic and contemporary plays, provocative new works and second productions, the Geffen Playhouse continues to present a body of work that has garnered national recognition. Named in honor of entertainment mogul and philanthropist David Geffen, who made the initial donation to the theater, the company was founded by Gilbert Cates, and is currently helmed by Artistic Director Randall Arney, Managing Director Ken Novice, General Manager Behnaz Ataee, Chief Development Officer Regina Miller and Co-Chairs of the Board Martha Henderson and Pamela Robinson Hollander. Proudly associated with UCLA, the Geffen Playhouse welcomes an audience of more than 130,000 each year, and maintains an extensive education and outreach program, designed to engage young people and the community at large in the arts.
